

B'NAI B'RITH WORLD CENTR AWARD FOR JOURNALISM - 2010

Application Rules and Guidelines

Eligibility:

- For print media: Articles authored by Israeli residents* or the editor of a collection of articles and published between January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010 in Israeli newspapers, magazines or journals which appear at least twice annually.
- For broadcast media: Radio and television programs broadcast between the above dates (also reruns) on legally-operated Israeli national or regional radio and television stations or on cable television, which were presented, directed, edited or produced by an Israeli resident. For the purpose of these rules, "resident" – at time of publication or broadcast.
- For web-based media: any article that appeared in a virtual newspaper whose editorial bureau is located in Israel, authored by an Israeli resident.
- An award winner will not be candidate again for a period of three consecutive years after winning the Award.

Submission Rules: Entries may be submitted by the authors themselves or upon the recommendation of others. Entries must arrive at the B'nai B'rith World Center. P.O.B. 7522, 22 King David St., Jerusalem, worldcenter@012.net.il by March 15, 2011. All entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form (below). Print media entries must include an original or photocopy of the article. Broadcast media entries must include digital recordings (CD or DVD) of the program, with indication of the time and channel on which it was broadcast. Entries can be in any language, but entries in any language other than Hebrew or English must be accompanied by a translation into either of these languages. Multiple entries may be submitted.

Comments: The World Center reserves the right to directly approach journalists and others in the field to encourage submission of entries. The cash prize is 5,000 NIS. The World Center may substitute the cash prize with a trip to a Diaspora Community. The Award Jury may: refrain from making an award if no entry deemed worthy is submitted or for any other justified reason; divide the Award among multiple winners; confer non-prize bearing citations of Honorable Mention, Life Achievement and Excellence.

Print this application and complete and mail or scan completed application and e-mail.

Full Rules and Guidelines available from the B'nai B'rith World Center

B'NAI B'RITH WORLD CENTER AWARD FOR JOURNALISM

2011 Entry Form

The Deadline for Receipt of Entries is March 15, 2011

I. This Entry is submitted by:

Name: _____
Address: _____ Tel: _____ Fax: _____

II. Information about Entry:

Article/Program title: _____
Name of Publication/Radio-Television channel: _____ Country: _____
For written Electronic entry: Date of Publication: _____ Circulation: _____
Volume/Issue#: _____ page no.: from _____ to _____

For Radio or television entry: Date and time of broadcast: _____

Length (hour/min.): _____ Listenership/Viewership: _____

Include full credits list _____

III. Information about candidate*:

Name: _____ Position: _____
Address: _____ e-mail _____
Home Tel. _____ Work Tel. _____ Fax. _____ Mobile. _____

1030-906

Please complete and forward with attachments