Dear Prime Minister Harper,

On behalf of B'nai B'rith International, we write to express our condolences, first and foremost to the families of Cpl. Nathan Cirillo and Warrant Officer Patrice Vincent, and also to the people of Canada over the shocking terrorist attacks that have taken place this week.

We strongly condemn these heinous and senseless attacks, which have claimed the lives of two Canadian soldiers within a span of three days. We are shocked and outraged by these cowardly acts.

We stand with you and the people of Canada as you grieve on this tragic day and as you move forward.

With deepest sympathy,

Daniel S. Mariaschin
Executive Vice President
