

WIN A $5,000 SCHOLARSHIP & GET PUBLISHED

BY WRITING & ILLUSTRATING A CHILDREN'S BOOK

WHAT:

A SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

High school students are invited to write and illustrate a children's book that discusses the topics of tolerance and diversity.

Submissions should provide a story that children (in grades K-5) can understand and identify with, as well as promote a greater understanding of different cultures, lifestyles and beliefs. Students may work individually or as a team (up to four members).

WHO:

The contest is open to all currently enrolled 9-12th grade students within New York City (all boroughs) who have not previously published an original manuscript for profit.

HOW:

Visit www.bnaibrith.org/diverseminds for detailed submission information. Or call 888-838-2499 or email diverseminds@bnaibrith.org.

DEADLINE:

Submissions must be received or postmarked by Friday, March 21, 2014.

B'nai B'rith International

Diverse Minds Youth Writing Challenge

..... NEW YORK CITY AREA .....

FIRST PRIZE

$5,000 college scholarship
& professional publication of your book

SECOND PRIZE

$2,000 college scholarship

THIRD PRIZE

$1,000 college scholarship

SCHOOL PRIZE

The school of the first-place winning
Student will receive a $500 grant

TEACHER PRIZE

The teacher who oversees the creation of the first place winning submission will receive a
$500 stipend to use for classroom materials

MADE POSSIBLE THROUGH A GRANT FROM

