Dear President-elect Macri:

On behalf of America's oldest Jewish advocacy and social service organization, it is with great pleasure that we offer our congratulations on your triumphant win in the Argentine run-off presidential election. This achievement is a sincere testament of your tireless dedication to your nation. Allow us to send our good wishes for every success in your term.

As you know, for 170 years B'nai B'rith has built a singular record of advancing the interests and values of the Jewish people, including the promotion of human rights and inter-communal cooperation, around the globe. Our organization maintains an active presence in Argentina, with our Argentine affiliate founded in 1930.

We are honored to work with you and your distinguished colleagues to strengthen our cooperation and engagement, and we look forward to furthering this relationship over the years to come.

Respectfully,

Gary P. Saltzman
President

Daniel S. Mariaschin
Executive Vice President
