PUBLISHER RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REJECT ANY ADVERTISING IT FEELS WOULD BE INCONSISTENT WITH B'NAI B'RITH OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES.

CANCELLATION AND SHORT RATE: Cancellation of any portion of any contract and/or insertion order by or on behalf of the advertiser or failure to have published the specified number of pages automatically nullifies any rate discount, including previously published advertisements, and may result in a short rate. Advertisers will be short-rate invoiced if the terms and conditions following are not met and/or if contract or insertion order and payment terms are not adhered to.

PAYMENT TERMS: Payment for advertisements is due within 30 days from date of invoice. Interest will be charged at a rate of 1.5% per month on past-due balances after 90 days from date of invoice. Advertiser and/or Agency agree to reimburse B'NAI B'RITH magazine for any and all costs incurred in the collection of any unpaid portion of the charge for the advertisement, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and court costs.

INSERTION REQUIREMENTS: Ads will automatically run in the issue(s) specified in the original contract unless written notice at least 30 days prior to the closing date is provided requesting that the ad run in a different issue. Failure to provide said notice may result in artwork being "picked-up" from a previous insertion and/or the short rate being applied to the contract or insertion order. Contracted space must be used within a ten-issue (one year) time period unless otherwise specified in writing, on the original contract and/or insertion order.

SPECIAL RATES: All gate folds, inserts and multi-page advertisements must be discussed in advance with B'NAI B'RITH Magazine's Sales Department to establish mechanical feasibility and rates.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS MAY APPLY; SEE CONTRACT FOR DETAILS.

B'NAI B'RITH magazine is on a Mac-based platform with a 100% digital workflow in which every page is produced in-house. We do not rely on pre-press facilities. The magazine uses computer-to-plate, web offset printing with saddle-stitch. Any and all materials provided are presumed to be correct and in accordance with SWOP and stated requirements. (For more information on SWOP standards, go to www.swop.org.) It is the advertiser's and/or ad provider's responsibility to apply professional standards and courtesies to the ad production process. Advertisers are wholly responsible for the quality of their materials, including color and halftone accuracy, and publisher will not be held responsible for printing complications that arise due to non-conforming materials.

E-MAIL ADS TO:

adproduction@bnaibrith.org

HI-RES PDF SPECIFICATIONS

PDF files must be created with a universal PPD and correct job option settings. High-resolution images and fonts must be embedded when the PostScript file is saved. Images must be SWOP (CMYK), TIFF or EPS formatted at 300 dpi or higher, 280% density max. Do not nest files within another EPS file. Any and all Pantone/spot colors must be converted to CMYK before PostScript is saved. All required image trapping must be included in the file.

NATIVE FILES

We are not PC compatible. We prefer hi-res PDF files; however TIFF, InDesign, Quark, Illustrator and PhotoShop files will be accepted.

- InDesign CS2+
- Quark (v. 6+ accepted)
- PhotoShop (v. CS2+, saved as a flat TIFF or EPS file)
- Adobe Illustrator (with type converted to paths and saved as an EPS file, (NO TRANSPARENCY EFFECTS))

FONTS

Only PostScript/Type-1 fonts are accepted. If sending native files, please include both the screen and printer fonts. We cannot accept PC fonts, OpenType and True Type fonts.

COLORS

All colors appearing in the ad must be built from process colors (CMYK). Ads with spot colors, or two- and three-color ads should be built from CMYK. Converting colors to CMYK from RGB causes changes in the color. We cannot be held responsible for shifts in color if ad is not correctly set up to SWOP specifications.

COMPATIBLE MEDIA

- CD ROM
- DVD

B'nai B'rith: The Global Voice of the Jewish Community

Hospitals, orphanages, libraries, disaster relief, camps, education, agencies to fight bigotry and hatred, havens for college students, non-denominational high school youth programs, non-sectarian homes for the elderly of limited income, international advocacy, and much more. These and hundreds more remarkable and enduring achievements of Jewish life in the last 160 years bear the signature of one great organization: B'nai B'rith.

With active members involved in the social and political landscapes in nearly 50 countries worldwide, B'nai B'rith has a record of leadership, innovation, and enduring achievement. In the 21st century, as the world is confronted by new challenges, B'nai B'rith is focused on the most critical issues facing today's Jewish world:

The Aging of America — With more than three decades of experience, including the management of nearly 40 senior-living facilities in nearly 40 communities, B'nai B'rith is universally respected as the leading Jewish organizational expert on aging. This allows B'nai B'rith to actively advocate for the rights of seniors. From health care to Social Security, affordable housing to long-term care, we seek to make it easier for older people to live with autonomy and dignity.

Community Activism — From its earliest days, B'nai B'rith has been committed to the concept of tikkun olam, making the world a better place. Whether a program involves humanitarian aid and medications for local communities, or for countries in crisis, clothing and feeding the poor, or providing holiday celebrations for immigrants, B'nai B'rith's network of activists gives generously of their time and resources.

Human Rights and Advocacy — An organization with members in nearly 50 countries can open doors in Congress, world capitals, the United Nations, and legislative halls across America. An organization so well-known and respected can instantly bring the weight of public opinion to bear on critical issues including advocating for Israel. It can confront the challenges of our times and work for human rights and dignity for all. That organization is B'nai B'rith.

From politics to personalities, culture to religion, travel to art, B'nai B'rith Magazine covers the broadest spectrum of the Jewish world in the 21st century.

Coverage is Key...

Few other magazines reach as broad a cross section of the Jewish world—men and women, the secular and the religious, small business owners, civic and business leaders, and the up-and-coming in today's Jewish community.

Continuity is Key...

Published since 1886 as the official publication of B'nai B'rith, the world's most widely known and respected Jewish organization. To its more than 200,000 readers, it's just their favorite way to stay current on Jewish issues.

Quality is Key...

This award-winning, glossy, full-color quarterly magazine brings a timely and trusted perspective to the politics, culture, and humor of everyday Jewish life.

Technology is Key...

Beyond the print publication, you can find B'nai B'rith Magazine online at www.bnaibrith.org. Not only are there "web exclusives" to read, but with the entire magazine available online, readers can click on your ad, which includes a free web link, bringing them directly to your product's website.

If it affects today's Jewish world, you'll find it here. Let the American Jewish community find your business there, too, by advertising in B'nai B'rith Magazine!

The Magazine

B'nei B'rith Magazine presents information and analysis on topics of interest and concern to the domestic and international Jewish community; insight into issues not yet on the radar screen; and news about current and future B'nei B'rith International endeavors. From the environment to anti-Semitism on campus, domestic abuse to disaster relief — with a side trip into the humor and foibles of Jewish life — B'nei B'rith Magazine is a must-read for the inquiring Jewish mind.

B'nei B'rith Magazine serves the community as the go-to general interest Jewish magazine with an eclectic collection of articles spanning foreign and domestic policy, health care, Jewish geography, food, culture, and more. B'nei B'rith Magazine successfully juxtaposes stories about the U.N. Human Rights Council and the Jews of Cape Verde in one issue, with stories about Iran in Latin America and eco-kosher food in the next. You can read about small-town American Jews and policies on aging in one issue, and keeping Jews safe and alternative energy in another.

You can see these and more by visiting www.bnaibrith.org. With such a vast array of stories, there is endless opportunity to get your message to a captive audience. Advertise with B'nei B'rith Magazine today!

B'nai B'rith Magazine E-Blasts

The hottest advertising medium of the 21st century is available through B'nai B'ith. The B'nai B'rith Magazine E-Blast program goes direct to the inbox of approximately 27,000 members and donors every week (with the option of a more limited list of 14,000 members and donors).

The blasts go out under the following banner:

B'NAI B'RITH
M A G A Z I N E

From time to time B'nai B'rith Magazine will share information we feel you may find of interest. While we can't guarantee or endorse these offers from third parties, we share them with our readers and friends because we hope you will find them valuable.

S P E C I A L O F F E R S

No other material is included in the mailing, so the recipient's full attention is on the advertiser's message. Because the e-blasts go out in HTML form, there is no need for the recipient to open a PDF or take any additional step to read the message. The advertiser can designate the subject line for the mailing or we will write one.

Advertisers have been pleased with both the number and quality of the results from the e-blasts and after the first mailing most have signed on for additional blasts.

Mechanical specs for the e-blasts are simple:

- A JPEG no larger than 500 kb with a maximum width of 626 pixels.
- A very small number (fewer than 50) of our readers do not have e-mail that supports HTML. For them, we also need a text version of the ad.
- Since the entire ad is essentially clickable, there can only be one link. However, it's important to include a graphic with "click here" or similar language. Please specify the URL to which you want readers to go.
- Although most people will go to your website for more information, it is useful to also include a phone number.

Samples are available on request. For information on rates and schedule availability, contact Michael Monheit at 301-604-3466 or michaelmonheit@aol.com.
